OMAHA, NE, JANUARY 22, 2008: A dream comes true for a North Omaha business woman. Patricia Barron affectionately known as “Big Mama” is announcing the Grand Opening of Big Mama's Kitchen and Catering. Come join Big Mama for her grand opening celebration on Monday, February 4, 2008 at 11:00 A.M. Barron's mission: To re-introduce freshly prepared meat, fruits and vegetables in flavorful ways as to encourage others to bring family meals back to the table. Big Mama's Kitchen is conveniently located in the heart of North Omaha on the Turning Point Campus at 3223 North 45th Street, Building A.

Patricia “Big Mama” Barron brings over 30 years of catering excellence to her new venture. She continues to build on her passion for cooking great food that started when she was a young girl helping her mother Lena “Mother Dear” McClarty and Grandmother Lillie. Freshly prepared vegetables, cakes, cookies, and pies made from scratch, along with many delicious foods you just don't see anymore,” Barron said.

Big Mama's Kitchen offers sugar-free items along with wheat and gluten-free products. Other services include catering intimate dinners for two or a feast for your business, church, school, or social organization. “We want people from all parts of the Metro area to come together at Big Mama’s and enjoy great tasting meals together,” said Barron. Her facility is also open for banquet rental.

"A full-service, sit-down restaurant in the North Omaha area has tremendous potential," said Ken Johnson, economic development manager for the City of Omaha.
